EXPANSION - Basic American Foods Urgent Recall

Basic American Foods has issued an expansion recall for au gratin potatoes because of potential contamination with Salmonella. The below item in BOLD has been added to the recall. This is an expansion to the original recall which was communicated on May 8th.

Summary

Recall Date 5/10/2024

Company Basic American Foods

Product Au Gratin Potatoes

Reason Salmonella

Illness

Salmonella is an organism which can cause serious and sometimes fatal infections in young children, frail or elderly people, and others with weakened immune systems. Healthy persons infected with Salmonella often experience fever, diarrhea (which may be bloody), nausea, vomiting and abdominal pain. In rare circumstances, infection with Salmonella can result in the organism getting into the bloodstream and producing more severe illnesses such as arterial infections (i.e., infected aneurysms), endocarditis and arthritis.

Instructions

Please isolate any affected product (see below table) and destroy it in a secure manner to prevent unauthorized consumption. If you have product stored out of the case and are unsure of the code date please destroy this product also. For credit, contact your sales representative or your local Gordon Food Service Store if you purchase in the store. Please note that proper procedures must be followed and these cases may not be returned to your distributor.
